

The Samuel Fox Country Inn

Comfortable rooms, fine food, real ales and a warm welcome

Wine Tasting Dinner

Thursday 3rd December

Our presenter, David Bird, MW

David trained as an analytical chemist and initially worked in food analysis for Reckitt & Colman. He joined wine trade in 1973 as a quality control manager and was elected a Master of Wine in 1981. In 1984 he joined Stowells of Chelsea as their quality assurance manager. Then, in 1994 he established his own business providing quality assurance audits of wine producers and bottlers and advising wine importers and merchants on selections of wines. He has worked closely with leading regional wine merchant, Austin's Group for several years. In his spare time David's interests range from music, playing the organ and directing a choir, to gardening, opening his garden to the public once a year as part of the National gardens Scheme. He is also a keen photographer and cook.